SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

May Not Rain Today

Yesterday's rain clouds were predicted to remain in the area today, according to the United Press, but rain is not forecast. A westerly wind, 10-20 miles per hour, will prevail. High temperature will range from 60-67, the same figure as yesterday.

Health Office To Administer Polio Vaccine

San Jose State will conduct a polio vaccination program for its students, faculty members, and employees, according to Dr. Thomas J. Gray, health officer.

Dr. Gray disclosed yesterday that a registration period for the Salk vaccine shots has been set up, beginning Nov. 13 and running through Nov. 21.

According to Gray, a series of three shots will be given at $1 per shot. The first shots are scheduled to start Monday, Dec. 3.

Students will register during November for the first two shots only, the third shot isn't to be given until seven months following the second shot.

When students register they will be given a receipt for the first and second injections. Students who are not 21 years old must have their parents sign the receipt.

Dr. Gray disclosed that the shots will be given in order of registration. The registration period is needed to know the amount of vaccine to order.

According to Dr. Gray, shots will be given two afternoons a week and two hours an afternoon. Dr. Gray said that around 250 shots will be given during each two-hour period.

One thousand students will be able to receive their first shot by the time Christmas vacation begins, 500 during the Dec. 2 week, and 500 during the Dec. 9 week. According to Dr. Gray, there must be a four to six week delay between the first two shots, when the vaccination is over the second shots will be given to complete the first group of 1000.

The second series of first shots will begin Jan. 21 and by the end of the week of Jan. 27 the second group of 1000 will have received their initial shot.

Dr. Gray said that the San Jose State health department will be able to handle the vaccinations without calling for outside help. The shots are given just two days a week to allow the health office to carry on with its other activities.

According to Dr. Gray, it is possible that another registration period will be held some time during February or March if enough students show interest.

San Jose is one of around 80 colleges in the nation which has joined the growing movement for campus vaccinations against polio.

Prop. 3 Campaign Gains Volunteers

More than 50 volunteers from the college have helped in the public mailing campaign giving background material on Proposition 3, Mrs. Harry Engwicht, Faculty Wives member and chairman of the distribution program, announced today.

Work was directed by Faculty Wives, assisted by representatives from various other campus organizations. These were AWS, Spartan Spears, Black Masque, ASB, Patrons' Association, and the Alumni Association.

Debaters To Mix Education, Politics

Politics and education will be mixed together when Republican incumbent Assemblyman Bruce Allen and his Democratic opponent, William Harris, appear at a debate on "Federal Aid to Education" tonight at 8 p.m. in the Concert Hall.

Sponsored by the San Jose State College chapter of the California Student Teachers Association, the speakers will discuss the effect of federal aid on state legislation. Dwight Mitchell, San Jose Mercury-News education editor, will be moderator of the debate.

LYKEABLE DOLL — Bernie Wood, a freshman kindergarten primary major from Van Nuys, Calif., has been selected as the Lykeable Doll for the Homecoming issue on sale today. Miss Wood, a brunette, is a member of the Rally Committee and thinks San Jose State is a very friendly college. She has also "denounced" Southern California and hopes to teach in this area.

Frosh Brunette Gains Lykeable Doll Honors

A recent addition to the Northern California population was revealed this morning as the Lykeable Doll of Lyke magazine.

Bernie Wood, freshman kindergarten-primary major from Van Nuys, Calif., is featured as the Lykeable Doll in the Homecoming edition of Lyke that is now on sale at booths throughout the campus. Although she has only been in the northern half of the there are coeds such as Bernie Wood on campus.

The Lykeable Prof title for this Homecoming issue of Lyke went to Dr. William G. Sweeney, chairman of the division of teacher education.

Dr. Sweeney, appropriately enough for the Homecoming edition, is a graduate of SJS. He was graduated in 1930 and four years later returned to the campus as a member of the education faculty.

An active student at SJS, Dr. Sweeney was student body president in 1928. He was also editor of the school paper, president of the San Jose Players and president of his fraternity.

Other features of Lyke, which sells for 25 cents, are a parody on "A Spartan From The Start," the always-funny "pilfered pie," features on football coach Bob Bronzan, the San Jose marching band and their new director, Dr. Roger S. Muzzy, and the 1951 Homecoming Queen, Barbara Kelly.

Plenty of fiction pieces, jokes and cartoons also are available in Lyke. From the three-color cartoon cover to the last advertisement, the staff of Lyke promises that the feature magazine truly contains "something for everyone."

SJS Grad Given Industrial Post

Robert R. Price, SJS graduate, has been appointed regional gearing division representative for the Westinghouse Electric Corp. Price, gearing division representative for the Sunnyvale plant since 1953, will make his headquarters in San Francisco.

Dramatists Open Fall Pledge Days

San Jose Players announces the opening of the fall pledge period for all interested students. Pledging began Monday and will continue until Nov. 7.

Any student interested in drama and who has participated in some recognized drama function at SJS is welcome to join, according to Robert Gordon, business manager. Pledge forms may be obtained in SD 100, Gordon said.

Council To Fill Two Openings On Committee

Appointment of two students to the Committee on Concerts and Professional Artists Performances will highlight today's meeting of Student Council. President Ray Freeman announced. The Council will meet at 2:30 p.m. in the Student Union.

Applications for the two committee positions were declared open at last week's meeting, but Freeman today urged all interested students to apply. Interviews of applicants will be held at today's meeting.

The committee was formed last semester to investigate the possibility of bringing well-known professional performers to San Jose State for appearances. Student Council voted the committee $1000 last week to serve as a financial "cushion" in the scheduling of such artists.

"Students have long wondered why other colleges were able to obtain 'big-name' performers for campus appearances," Freeman stated. "With this committee now in operation, San Jose State can schedule such artists as Nat 'King' Cole and Harry Belafonte for concerts."

Other appointments to be considered at today's meeting are for Freshman Camp Director and for the Centennial Committee publicity division.

Major financial items for consideration are a request from La Torre for $4800 to help publish a special Centennial yearbook and formal acceptance of $6135 from the Spartan Shop Board for stadium lights.

Queen Debuts On TV Tonight

Centennial Homecoming Queen Anna Beal makes her television debut with Homecoming Committee Chairman Jerry McCarthy tonight at 9:30 o'clock on KNTV, Channel 11.

Queen Anna will be interviewed on the San Jose State Football show by Frank Darien, local radio and television personality. She will discuss her duties for Homecoming week and her plans for the remainder of the Centennial year.

Also tonight, members of the Homecoming Committee will be guests of Bob Custer on Custer's Caravan at 10 o'clock over KLOK. Discussing the work of the Homecoming Committee in the planning, supervision and execution of Homecoming activities will be Jan Heter, queen committee chairman, Barbara Clement, downtown merchants committee chairman, and Dick Yeager, publicity committee chairman.

Witches Ride Again Tonight; Halloween With New Twists

BY BARBARA HARTMAN

The gob-bel-ins will getcha if you don't watch out, but if you're really smart, you may be able to outfox them. This takes quite an effort in this mechanized age.

Witches on broomsticks were bad enough, but the modern version comes equipped with full-sized shopping bags and parents who transport them by automobile to the more crowded residential areas. This calls for retaliative measures by the wary householder who wants to avoid October bankruptcy.

One man we knew with an upstairs apartment, hung an effigy on his landing, with a red light casting eerie shadows on the dangling figure. A tape recording of wails and shrieks completed the effect. Only the hardest ventured to climb the stairs after that.

Another couple of our acquaintance decided "trick or treat" meant the little goblins and banshees must perform some trick in order to gain their treat. This made a very diverting evening.

A grownup who perhaps hasn't quite grown up and would go trick-or-treating if he had the nerve has another system. He can think of, sets a table of goodies on the porch and decorates it in an appropriate Halloween fashion and then waits for his victims to approach.

When the ghosts arrive, he greets them with a fiendish laugh and blows on a horn that unwinds into their faces. If they live through this, he is happy to give them their little treat, figuring it was a small enough price to pay for his fun.

What it all boils down to, we're not just sure, except that Halloween is more fun than it used to be—if you happen to be an adult.

Clarke Swears In Court Members

Sophomore Female Justice Carol Crisler and Sophomore Male Justice Roger Tiffany were sworn in officially as members of Student Court at a meeting of that body yesterday.

No cases for prosecution were on the docket. Court justices were delegated by Chief Justice Gary Clarke to interview chairmen of campus committees to see if any changes in the ASB By-Laws are requested.

Children Sought For Fourth Time

SAN JOSE (UP) — San Jose's wandering children, Delphia Fluss, 11, and her 10-year-old brother Larry, are being sought by police again—for the fourth time in six months.

They've been gone six days this time—about the same length of time they were off adventuring in September. Then they were found "keeping house" in an abandoned shack, complete with pots and pans and a good supply of bacon and eggs.

VIENNA — Radio Budapest announced Tuesday that Soviet troops have begun a withdrawal from Hungary's battle-torn capital which will be completed by tomorrow morning.

Soviets Relent

LONDON — The Soviet government announced its willingness Tuesday to discuss the withdrawal of Russian troops from its rebelling East European satellites.

The announcement came shortly after Communist Premier Imre Nagy began official peace negotiations with Hungarian Nationalist leaders and Hungarian Air Force threatened to fight to rid Budapest of Red troops.

Nagy's new spokesman, Elder Statesman Zoltan Tildy, said on the radio earlier Tuesday that Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary, should be released after seven years of imprisonment "to take part in the liberation struggle."

Co-Rec Plans Halloween Fun

A carnival, complete with booths, games of skill and chance, a chamber of horrors and many other things will be on the program tonight when Co-Rec holds their annual Halloween party in the Women's Gym from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

The Halloween carnival is always a big event in Co-Rec and this year's will be no exception, according to Leonard Roberts, publicity chairman.

Apple bobbing will also be on the program and promises a lot of fun.

All students are invited at the Women's Gym tonight at 7:30 o'clock for an evening of Halloween fun.

Sir Anthony Eden of Britain and French Premier Guy Mollet.

His action was disclosed by the White House after a long afternoon of telephone conferences between Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

The President, it said, acted swiftly after hearing of press reports that Britain and France had sent Egypt and Israel an ultimatum to stop fighting within 12 hours or their forces would establish temporary occupation of the Suez Canal Zone.

A spokesman said the President, in his message, expressed his earnest hope that a full opportunity would be given the

Bulletin

CAIRO, —(UP)— Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser last night rejected a London ultimatum to cease hostilities with Israel or face Anglo-French occupation of the Suez Canal Zone. Latest reports from the island of Cyprus indicated that fleets of English and French airplanes laden with paratroopers were headed toward the canal.

Nasser warned his country would fight if the two Western powers attempted to seize the canal.

United Nations to settle the controversy by peaceful means.

Press Secretary James Hagerly said in a statement:

"This government continues to believe that it is possible by such peaceful means to secure a solution which would restore the armistice conditions between Egypt and Israel as well as to bring about a just settlement of the Suez Canal controversy."

The statement made special point of the fact that Eisenhower received his first word of the British-French ultimatum through press reports. The British and French governments did not notify the United States of the action until later in the afternoon.

EGYPT ENTERS FIGHTING

Egypt's Soviet-equipped airforce went into action today against Israel's lightning thrust into the Sinai Desert and said its land forces "are presently advancing to mop up" the Israeli invaders.

Neither side would call it a war.

But in the capitals of the western world there was fear that Israel's thrust, allegedly to wipe out Egyptian suicide commando bases, might be the spark to touch off the long-feared general war in the Middle East.

U.S. EXPRESSES DISMAY

U.S. officials expressed dismay and annoyance today that Britain and France did not consult the United States about their plan to send troops into the Suez area unless Israeli-Egyptian fighting stops.

Some viewed the surprise move as an excuse to get Anglo-French troops back into the Suez Canal area.

Others voiced suspicions that that Britain and France had secret advance knowledge of Israel's plan to invade Egyptian territory—and that they even may have tacitly approved.

ASKS FOR CEASE FIRE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., — (UP)—The United States asked the United Nations Security Council today to issue an immediate order for a cease-fire in the Israeli-Egyptian fighting and for the withdrawal of Israel's troops to its own borders.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., opening the council's extraordinary session on the Palestine situation, said each member has a "clear-cut responsibility to take immediate measures to restore peace" in the Middle East.

SJS To Fight Crippling Polio

Polio continues to disable and kill. Despite the encouraging results with Salk vaccine immunizations, polio hits hundreds each week. Twenty-five per cent of all polio patients are adults 20 and over, while another 15 per cent are teen-agers.

San Jose State, through the efforts of College President John T. Wahlquist and the Health Office, has acquired a polio vaccination program that will be opened for registration Nov. 13-21. During the nine-day registration period students, faculty and employees may sign for the series of three shots. Registration will not be limited and the cost averages $1 per shot. A small fee for worthwhile protection.

San Jose State is not alone in carrying on this polio vaccination program. Seventy-five colleges have reported that student vaccinations have been scheduled and 56 other schools already have started the program. The United States Naval Academy reports that the entire brigade of 3796 midshipmen have received the initial vaccination. Stanford and California already have participated in this nationwide vaccination program. In all, 43 million persons have been vaccinated.

National Foundation of Infantile Paralysis hopes to complete the college vaccination program before the 1957 polio season.

Polio can be licked and the progress in the control of this crippling disease has been heartening. Vaccination has proved the only means of control. Polio will continue its ravaging attack upon persons of all ages as long as unvaccinated people are available for the virus to hit.

SJS students cannot count on waiting for an epidemic to hit before getting vaccine shots. Administrative officials have brought the program to San Jose State. The decision to spend the small amount of money and time for the vaccination or forego the facilities and risk the chance that polio will not strike during the next polio season is up to the student. Honestly, is it worth the chance to pass up the chance for a safeguard against the dread effects of polio?

If Curious About Being 'Campused,' Heed Advice from One Who Knows

By PATI BARATINI

"A campus?!!!!? What's that? Stay in for a whole week-end! I never heard of such a thing!!!"

A few words to the unknown and uninformed from one who knows; there is such a thing. And, now that you are aware of this here is a warning and some advice.

First of all, don't get campused. To do this, just obey rules, which includes making lock-out, getting decent grades, and many many others, which vary from living group to living group.

If you are one of the unfortunate who get caught breaking one of these rules, there are only two choices left. Either accept it as "one of those things," or argue. Of course, the former is a lot easier but there is no feeling of accomplishment if you just give in. Fight it!! Even if you wind up with a book for company on Friday and Saturday nights at least you know you've tried.

If you feel a campus may be in the cards, here are a few tips on making your own company more enjoyable. One important help is knitting. This takes a bit of time and something is gained, even if only a pair of argyle dice.

Or there are books—"War and Peace" to "Barefoot Boy With Cheek," depending on your taste.

"This is all unnecessary," you may say. "My friends can come over and visit."

Are you kidding? This is one of the tragedies of getting campused. You are allowed no male visitors if you're a female, and visa versa. The same also holds true for phone calls.

If the outlook looks bad—remember "Be real good, obey rules, and don't get campused". But if you do, or if you think you will, you always know that if worse comes to worse you can study.

After Dance Blues

Dear Thurst and Parry:

If you are suffering from broken toes, bruised shins, and the results of having a new girl every time you jitterbug, you are suffering from after-dance blues! This unfortunate malady cannot be remedied by the continuance of student body dances (Coronation Ball, Wintermist, etc.) at Ye Olde Civic Auditorium.

We can think of at least three tentative answers:

- (1) Eliminate the students,
- (2) Eliminate the dances,
- (3) Eliminate the Civic Auditorium as a dance site.

We feel that the first two solutions, being obviously impossible, brings one to the conclusion that there is one possible, plausible, and conceivable solution—that of getting a larger dance floor, e.g. the Exposition Hall at the county fair grounds.

In the interest of preserving the feet of those who have to walk to class in the coming days—we request that this letter be given due consideration by all present and future dance committees.

Achingly yours,

Holloway Elucidates

Dear Thurst and Parry:

I hope that these few remarks will encourage a professor of political science or history to make elucidating statements in this column concerning the Hungarian and Polish revolutions.

It seems quite significant that these two countries, along with Yugoslavia, desire to be independent, nationalistic entities following some tenets of communism.

I emphasize some tenets of communism, for it seems that Titoism or Right Deviationism directly contradicts the theory that international revolution is good and necessary because it would hasten the inevitable doom of capitalism and its replacement by a dictatorship of the proletariat which would melt away into a congenial anarchy made possible by economic equality.

The existence of so-called communist governments desiring to be independent of Russia, and who like Tito, may desire friendly dealings with the West, is certainly a giant's step away from the international revolution and the fall of capitalism.

If Russia will allow these nations to exist as independent so-called communist states, it may mean one of the following: 1) that Russia now has means other than trickery and oppression to advance the communistic revolution; 2) that the Russian leaders have only benign desires for international peace and welfare; 3) that the Russian leaders are actually conducting an imperialistic campaign for power, and 4) any autonomy allowed by them is of a tentative nature.

Evidence seems to point to Soviet imperialism. Therefore, any real autonomy afforded Hungary and Poland would be caused by fear of pursuing an aggressive, imperialistic policy.

Titoism or Right Deviationism may cause an opportunity for our nation to encourage self-determination to the detriment of Soviet power. Whether or not this would be a step toward war is debatable.

But, it is certainly not debatable that immediate, wise and unified action by the West through the General Assembly of the United Nations would be beneficial now.

Nix on 'Presents'

Dear Thurst and Parry:

We've waited as long as we can, but can wait no longer. If somebody won't write about this matter, we will. It is about this "new" group of snobs that our SJS sororities have recently pledged.

You see, we are new students at San Jose State, there was no such thing as "Presents". Naturally, we looked forward to this event with anticipation, only to find that the little pin, the formal gown, and the elevated nose made these lovely lasses oh so much better than us.

Gosh! (Such a burst of profanity) All we wanted was to get introduced to anybody, yet as we were presented, we met only many affected somebodies. And being only peasants, with little foresight, we had neglected to complete our attire with autograph books (mit pencils).

We know that you're thinking we are mad because a sorority wouldn't choose us, but we're not. We realize that there is a rule against pledging men.

Now here is the point, "Wise up, school!" Do we want this "snobbish" business to push us into the same category as our "pure and clean" friends to the north?

'Faith, Hope, Charity?'

Dear Thurst and Parry:

The state of California is in great need of buildings for higher education, hospitals, and correctional institutions. It will cost about $448 million to build them.

Accordingly, the legislature has proposed in Proposition 3, a $200 million bond issue to get the buildings started. It is hoped that revenues will increase over the next five years to get the balance. Proposition 3 sets aside $60 million for capital outlay for the state colleges. The building program includes about $30 million in projects for San Jose State College, of which about $7 million might come from Proposition 3 bonds.

If the state building program were to be financed entirely out of revenues (pay-as-you-go), new or increased taxes would be required. Depending in part on bonds (pay-as-you-use) is equitable because future taxpayers can do their part. The extra cost of the borrowing is offset by getting the buildings sooner and by spreading the burden so that state taxes need not be raised.

There is no organized opposition to Proposition 3. However, people fear debt and taxes. Passage of Proposition 3 will not cause a great debt burden nor will it increase state taxes. More business and more taxpayers should furnish the income to pay interest and retire the debt.

A vote for Proposition 3 is really a vote for faith in the future (education), hope for those gone wrong (prisons), and for charity (hospitals).

Vote YES on 3!

Gridders Swim Sans Sundries

BELMONT, Calif. — (UP) — Carlmont High School Principal Al Terremere, suspended 15 varsity football players over the weekend for swimming in the nude in the school pool.

Terremere said today the players, mostly seniors, went for the swim late Thursday afternoon. He was informed of the incident on Friday and suspended the students Friday night after the team lost 20-0 to Burlingame High School. The suspension was for the rest of the season.

He said the school will continue with its football schedule in the Northern Peninsula Athletic League in which it hasn't won a game so far this season.

Here and There

By FRED CLAIRE

With election day growing nearer it's interesting to read some comments of college newspapers on the leading political candidates.

The Western Michigan College publication, the Western Herald, concerned itself last week with a "Southerner" who reportedly cut his hand at a time when handshaking was in need.

Realizing the importance of the handshake, especially with less than a month left before election day, this "Southerner" bandaged the wound on his operational hand and continued to greet voters in the American fashion.

Said the Herald, "it seems that he would rather be a onehanded White House resident than a twohanded Senator. None-the-less, all is fair in politics and handshaking."

MUSTACHE WAX

The Connecticut Daily Campus reports this one: It seems there's been a boom in the sale of mustache wax lately. Since that item hasn't been overly popular since the days of Teddy Roosevelt, manufacturers started checking back and traced the increased sales to the least expected place, the college campus.

America's clean-shaven college youth are now buying the product, but not for the purpose for which it was originally intended.

Students, after adopting the crew cut, couldn't make the hair bristle. Then, some wise fellow remembered great grandpa, and found that nothing will stiffen a crew cut better than good old fashioned mustache wax. Result:

New life for the makers of mustache wax.

Elvis Presley Needled in New York To Publicize Value of Salk Vaccine

NEW YORK, (UP)—They shot Elvis Presley yesterday, but the weapon was a hypodermic needle and the purpose was to publicize the value of Salk polio shots for teenagers.

The 21-year-old rock 'n' roll hero, submitted to a news conference as well as the polio inoculation, but carefully remained out of reach of some 300 to 500 teenage fans, mostly girls, who assembled in Times Square for the unveiling of a 40-foot figure of Presley on a movie theater marquis.

City Health Commissioner Baumgartner watched while Presley was inoculated, and noted that only 10 percent of the city's teenagers have received the polio shots. Next to young children, this age group runs the greatest risk of contracting polio.

Gridders in Year's Best Workout

Team Renews Mentor's Faith In Will to Win

Reinhart Second In National Passing

San Jose State's football team bounced back from the worst Spartan grid beating in two years by staging what coach Bob Bronzan termed "the best practice session of the year".

Bronzan had the team working out under the light at Spartan Stadium until 7 o'clock and the result was a workout that renewed Bronzan's faith in the team.

"We never have given up on the boys and we never will," Bronzan remarked after the workout. "We got reassurance that some of the fellows who had let down, will come through."

Bronzan had stated after the 47-13 drubbing at the hands of Arizona State that this would be the week to make or break the team.

'COMING BACK'

"They seem to be coming back and from here on out, if we don't win, the other teams certainly will know that they have been in a ball game," Bronzan said.

Bronzan opined that if the team had hit in the San Diego ASC games the way it did in practice, San Jose would have won both tilts.

Bob Marciel, on the strength of his consistently fine work, will get a chance to start Saturday night at center against Denver while Marv McKean, who has been hobbled with a bad ankle, may get the call over Bob Reinhart at quarterback.

REINHART SECOND

Reinhart moved into second in national passing statistics behind Stanford's John Brodie and into fourth in total offense.

Reinhart has completed 61 of 111 passes for 781 yards and seven touchdowns.

Daily Report on Spartan Athletics

Wednesday, October 31, 1956 SPARTAN DAILY Page 3

Wrestlers Prep For Initial Meet

With seven returning lettermen and a host of promising newcomers, Coach Hugh Mumby's San Jose State wrestling team is preparing for the season opening match with the always tough University of California grapplers Dec. 5.

Heading the list of veterans will be two-year lettermen Lynn Brooks, Joe Isasi and Dick Weger. Brooks will compete at 147 pounds, Isasi at 115 pounds and Weger at 157.

One year lettermen include George Uchida at 137 pounds, Ken Spagnola, 167, Roy Frontani, 191, and Russ Camilleri, a heavy-weight.

The Spartans will have to add depth in the lower weight divisions to have overall team strength and Coach Mumby expects some of the newcomers to fill the gap.

Jack Asaki will compete at 123 pounds along with Carlos Arevalo, a non letter winner on the 1955 squad.

Tom Wong will be the lone 130 pound wrestling candidate. Ray Ratliff will join Uchida in the 137 pound class.

Connie Rushing, another newcomer to the squad will compete at 147 pounds.

The 157 pound division could be the strongest division on the team with the veteran Weger leading a group of five aspirants for the varsity spot.

Others in contention are Rudy Venegas, Northern California Interscholastic champ, and three newcomers, Dale Doig, Wayne Lee and Robert Pace.

Dick Baure, a non letter winner and footballer Greenville Cleveland join Spagnola in the 167 pound class.

There will be no letterman back in the 177 pound class but Mumby has five experienced candidates to choose from. Claire Sahlman, Bob Strangio and Pete Berman return from the 1955 squad and newcomers Tom Morgan and Robert Crider will provide additional depth.

Henry Lee, Earl Hames, Luis Calvetti, Bill Sickels and Wayne Medford join Frontani in the battle for the 191 pound berth on the team.

Nick Sanger, Tom Ryan and John Bergen will provide depth among the heavyweights. Along with Camilleri, they provide a strong division.

The frosh wrestlers will open their season against San Francisco State JV's at Spartan Gym on Jan. 11.

Spartan Boxers To Open Training Season Monday

Spartan varsity boxers officially begin training next Monday, Coach Julie Menendez announced yesterday.

Last night the ring aspirants met and Menendez discussed the schedule and training procedures.

The coach said he expected the lighter weight divisions to be the focal point of team strength. As an indication, he pointed out that the 139 pound division had four boxers almost equal in ability. Al Julian, Stu Rubine, Welvin Stroud and Vic Rapazzini all are proven boxers and shooting for a spot in that weight.

Julian, Stroud and Rubine fought in the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate for San Jose last year. The latter two have boxed in the 147-pound class, but have expressed a preference to go in the lighter weight this year.

Veteran Jack Montgomery is expected to hold down the 147 pound position, although Jim Davis could break in.

the Spartans in 1954, wrote Menendez recently saying he expected

RUNNING GAME CLICKS—Fullback Lou Valli of Stanford picks up 11 yards in the first quarter of the Stanford-University of Southern California game at Palo Alto. Quarterback John Brodie (12) of the Indians handed off to Valli. Coming up to make the tackle is USC's top runner, All-American Jon Arnett. The Indians won the game 27-19 and with it an inside track in the race for a Rose Bowl bid in Pasadena on New Year's Day. Stanford running, dormant for the first five games of the season, was the deciding factor in the game.

Cage Coaches Pleased With Teams' Progress

Both varsity basketball coach Walt McPherson and freshman mentor Jerry Vroom are well pleased with the progress made by their respective charges after two weeks of practice.

The two clubs open their seasons against similar opponents from Sanford on Nov. 30 in Spartan Gym. For the Indian yearlings, it will be the first off-campus encounter, except the traditional battle with Cal, in the school's history.

McPherson has been encouraged by the battle for the starting center post featuring Marv Branstrom (6-7), Arney Lundquist (6-7) and Bill Sherwood (6-5).

Branstrom was a first stringer last year and has shown improvement this season but so have Lundquist, up from the frosh, and Sherwood, who played jayvee ball in 1955.

Gil Egeland and Jack Rowley have a slight edge at forwards over Denny Harris and George Wagner, a converted guard. Dick Fly, Tom Hansen and Tom Louden are others pushing for a starting spot.

Ed Diaz, another of last year's starters, Don Rye, and Don Reid have pushed their way into the

Booters Meet SJJC Today

Feeling frisky after a hard fought 1-1 tie with the powerful San Francisco State kickballers, the San Jose State soccer team take on San Jose Junior College at Spartan Field at 2 o'clock today.

Coach Julie Menendez said that the tie game was a great lift to the team and continued, "I think we will play as a team from now on and win our share of games."

Menendez said the junior college team has several foreign students well acquainted with the game of soccer and that he expected a good match.

Sanders scored the lone SJS goal against San Francisco State.

San Jose returns to Northern California Intercollegiate Soccer League play Saturday when they take on the perennial champion University of San Francisco Don booters at Spartan Field.

fore in the race for the guard slots with John Perry and Tom Blackwood ready to step in should someone falter along the way.

Vroom is impressed with the work of his front line of Dean Jackson, George Wightman and Norm Steinbach. The trio, along with Hal Ulrey, should give the Spartababes better shooting than last year as well as good board work.

Ulrey, however, may be declared ineligible by the California Basketball Assn. because he played six frosh games before entering the service.

European Fashions On Display In Home Economics Building

European fashions, fabrics and patterns are the elements which Miss Maxalene Altman, assistant professor of home economics, has displayed in the Home Economics Building in order to bring attention to "products that contribute to the field of home sewing."

Miss Altman, who teaches clothing construction, has developed her display from ideas that she came across during her European visit this summer.

Several European techniques for patterns have been shown. "Women have to be better seamstresses to use the more complicated European patterns, which bear a resemblance to the American's Vogue," Miss Altman explained. She has exhibited printed and perforated patterns, a chart from which several styles and all the pieces must be traced (which is confusing, to say the least) and a fashion book that illustrates ideas and gives directions for drafting the designs.

Fabrics outstanding to several countries are exhibited. They are English woolsens, Swiss cotton and Italian silks. Miss Altman said that France, although it has many fine fabrics, excels in design and pattern. Germany's main contribution to the display are steel products such as scissors, needles, snaps and thimbles.

Miss Altman commented that European women do much more home sewing (or else wear custom-made garments) than do Americans, who rely on ready-to-wear. She noticed that everybody "looks a little different because there is so little duplication in dress."

The film was produced by Occidental Film Company of San Jose for the Associated Student Body. After Thursday's showings, it will be available for presentation before both campus and off-campus organizations.
